Micro and macro experimentation enables us to reinterpret and merge diverse fields such as architecture, design, graphic art and art in general so as to create inventive interiors and objects that make statements and define moods.

Debonademeo

www.debonademeo.it

Luca De Bona, an architect and Dario De Meo, a designer, became acquainted while they were traveling from Milan to the Veneto region. In 2013 they set up the DEBONADEMEO studio in Padua and Milan. Their projects – distinguished by a mix of romantic evocations and industrial references – have appeared in a great number of Italian and international industry publications.
